

Carey Owens

Director

As director, Carey provides asset management, operating analysis and owner's representation for the company's real estate portfolio. Additionally, Carey focuses on financial structuring, due diligence, underwriting and project feasibility analysis for the company's international and domestic developments and acquisitions.

Prior to joining Portman Holdings, Carey interned at ACG Professionals, Inc. where he analyzed and modeled multiple office and retail portfolios valued in excess of $30 billion, in addition to performing discrepancy analysis, reviewing leases, and validating financial data. Before receiving his MBA, Carey was the director of product management for Firstdoor, Inc., a technology start-up, overseeing the design, development and marketing of the company's product offerings. Prior to Firstdoor, Carey worked at various levels of project management and software development for Qwest Communications International, Inc. and American Management Systems, Inc.

Carey has a B.S. degree in Business Administration from Washington and Lee University, and an MBA with a concentration in real estate and leadership from the Goizueta Business School at Emory University. He is a licensed real estate salesperson and a member of the Urban Land Institute's Young Leaders Group.
